

Green Bay

Oneida Nation

The Oneida Nation of Wisconsin is a proud and progressive sovereign Tribe located immediately adjacent to the City of Green Bay. The Oneida Nation is committed to improving the quality of life for its citizens and its neighboring communities. The Oneida Nation is proud of the partnerships it has forged with local governments to efficiently manage governmental services in their communities. One of the largest employers in this region, the Oneida Nation operates many diverse businesses which contribute millions to the local economy. The Oneida Nation is proud of the partnership they have with the Green Bay Packers by sponsoring the Oneida Nation Gate at historic Lambeau Field. The history of the Oneida Nation and the legendary sport of football goes back to the first successful teams in Green Bay and the Oneida men who played on those teams. The Oneida Nation is proud to be a good neighbor and business partner in northeast Wisconsin.
